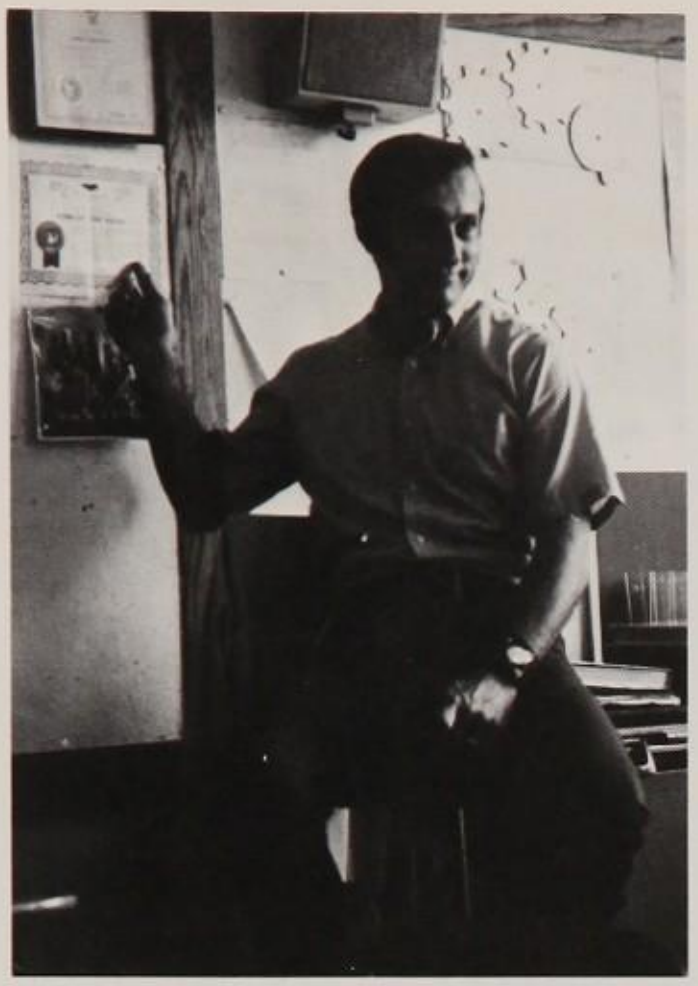
MR. STANGLE

You're caught!



Mr. Stangle points to his infamous FINK OF THE YEAR diploma.

An instructor must be dedicated to the student and to fair teaching. He must be able to make the confused understood. People who have the capability to instruct and encourage the student are rare.

In the classroom, Mr. Stangle reveals this ability as an instructor, proving to be of great value to his students. He is able to explain until the questioning follow and the confused understand.

Outside the classroom, he is always an optimistic, sincere person, whose unlimited enthusiasm makes him one of the most respected members of the faculty, by students and faculty alike. Always willing to spend his time in support of athletics and the extra curricular aspects of schooling, he has served as a class sponsor, an announcer at ball games, a coach, and a friend.

This DEDICATION is but a small acknowledgement of his endless services to the staff and our school, his warm personality, his cheery smile, and his friendly greeting. To you, Mr. Stangle, we dedicate the Dial of 1972.

Mr. Stangle in class.

The spirit generated by these five friends was led by our own Mr. Stangle.

DIAL
EDITORIAL STAFF

To publish a yearbook which accurately and interestingly reflects the school year is the goal of all the Dial Staff members. Co-Editors Wendy Freitag and Linda Stocks spent many long, hard hours in the early stages of planning and in supervising work sessions where the plans went into effect to become the actual pages of the yearbook. With the combined efforts of a diligent staff, the co-editors, and the capable guidance of the editorial advisor, Miss Stephens, the 1972 Dial was successfully completed.

BUSINESS STAFF

The Dial Ad Staff, sponsored by Mrs. Virginia Page, serves a major role in producing the school yearbook. By soliciting advertising space within the Dial, and selling the finished product, this group finances the yearbook.

Debbie Smith, Sarah Matthews

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, sponsored by Mrs. Ebbs, is an honorary organization formed to commend students for leadership, scholarship, service, and character. The officers of the National Honor Society are Tom Brown — president, Harry Edelman — vice president, Colleen Kurtz — secretary.

MONITOR STAFF

A new approach was taken this year in producing the school newspaper, The Monitor. Through the combined efforts of the Journalism, Photography, and Graphic Arts classes, the paper was produced entirely within the walls of C.C.H.S. Mr. Richard Lake is sponsor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council has gained prominence recently as an important tie between the students of CCHS and the faculty and administration. Through the guidance of sponsors Mr. Leming and Mr. Aspell and the leadership provided by President Bess Maxwell, the Council sponsored a successful Homecoming Dance, held at CCHS East for the first time.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The exuberant Varsity Cheerleaders were a familiar and welcome addition to Terrier football and basketball games. Headed by Captain Sandy Smith the Cheerleaders not only supported the teams at the games but also promoted school spirit in many exciting pep assemblies. They attended a summer workshop in Texas and were awarded the spirit stick for their accomplishments. Also included in their activities was a successful summer workshop which they sponsored for sixth, seventh, and eighth graders.

WRESTLING CHEERLEADERS

The Wrestling cheerleaders, with their pep and enthusiasm, helped to bring wrestling to a primary position at C.C.H.S. By promoting the meets through posters and by encouraging and cheering for wrestlers they certainly did their part in providing a successful season.

Both home and away the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders aroused spirit in support of the Junior Varsity basketball and football teams. Miss Strack, their sponsor, spent long hours with the girls, trying to prove that "practice makes perfect." Vickie Shacklee served as captain. Mrs. Kaplan sponsored the freshman cheerleaders as they backed their football and basketball teams by radiating pep, enthusiasm, and spirit in the Freshman class. Mary Jane Zimmer was elected their captain.

The creative and intriguing work of the members of the Honors Art Club has often been displayed in the Learning Center during the school year. The talents of these students were guided by Mrs. Renfro.

HONORS ART CLUB

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

EAST: FRONT ROW: Carolyn Larson, Dana Bolen, Cindi Taitt, Sharon Miller, Libby Andrews SECOND ROW: Mary Grace Curtis, Donna Adams, Gayla Bobbish, Sharon O'Dell, Deborah Stanley.

The Future Homemakers of America, sponsored by Mrs. Bonne, Mrs. Criminger, and Mrs. Todd, established new purposes for their organization this year, some of which were to strengthen the function of the family as a basic unit of society and to develop interest in home economics, home economics as a career, and related occupations. Some of their activities during the year were a candy sale, adoption of grandparents at Styrest Nursing Home, and a Valentine party at the nursing home.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The Future Business Leaders of America are sponsored by Mrs. Lingle and Mr. Darnell. Their purpose is to encourage business leaders and promote business-like conduct. They participate in meetings with other schools, money-making projects, and the state FBLA Convention. This organization is open to anyone taking business courses or who has previously taken them. Their officers for this year are Gayle Fozard — president, Connie Reinhardt — vice-president, Diane Cherry — secretary, and Becky Robinson — treasurer.

EAST LIBRARY CLUB

Assisting in the library by checking out books and magazines and generally assisting the librarian are the main duties and purposes of the East Library Club. Their sponsor is the librarian at East, Mrs. Bertha Vaughn.

SCIENCE CLUB

Mr. Lawrence is the sponsor of the Science Club, which is designed for students interested in in-depth study of science and the planning of science projects and field trips. Membership consists of students from both East and Central campuses.

Officers are Lex Cralley — president, Leslis Audi — vice-president, Julie Phillip — treasurer, Nancy Cunningham — secretary.

BAND

The Band, Twirlers, Lettergirls, and Terrierettes combine to make a very striking group. During the football season, parades, and basketball games they displayed their various talents well. The band is under the direction of Mr. Stephen Hayden who enhanced its talents. The Lettergirls, led by Diane Neill, added their usual sparkle to all performances. Julie Kelly, captain of the Terrierettes, and Mrs. Buzbee, their sponsor combined to give their organization a new look. The head twirler, Patti Pearl, directed a new group of twirlers. The entire Band and its auxiliary groups was enjoyed and well accepted by the entire community.

Renee Kupcek, Leola Parrish and Nancy Marion make up the "ale" end of the Lettergirls.

David Warner just doesn't understand Mike Myers' plan.

The All-School Musical "Bells Are Ringing" proved to be a great success with young and old alike. With full houses nightly the cast was encouraged to improve each performance. The cast highlighted by a unique brother-sister act, worked diligently afternoons and evenings for nine weeks to produce this musical. Susan Ramp, as Ella, a telephone operator for an answering service, kept herself busy solving problems of her customers as well as falling in love with one of them. She finally meets her mystery lover, Jeff, David Ramp, and the plot continues through a series of complicated entanglements, involving gangsters, bookies and a wide variety of "cameo" parts. "Bells Are Ringing" audiences left the show with a smile which lasts for only great memories and anticipation of musicals to come.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY — OUR TOWN

The All-School Play for the school year 1971-72 was Our Town, a story of a typical small town with its gossip and teen-age sweethearts. The audience was enchanted as a warm atmosphere was created by narrator, David Bach, who portrayed a grandfatherly image. After seemingly endless long hours of work that went into the production of this play, the cast was well rewarded by very receptive audiences.

FOCUS ON RADIO AND SPEECH

Presentation of the WCHS News and Daily Bulletin was the responsibility of Mrs. Boyle's radio students. The practical experience of writing, editing, and announcing these programs brought to these students an acute awareness of the demands of radio communication.

Speech students, headed by Mrs. Boyle, competed in a long season which included thirteen invitational tournaments, which began in October and ended in March. These tournament experiences helped the students to perfect their work in preparation for the District ISHA competition. Nine students competed in eleven events. Areas of competition were extemporaneous speaking, impromptu speaking, poetry reading, prose reading, duet reading, original oratory, after-dinner speaking, oratorical declamation, humorous interpretation, dramatic interpretation, radio speaking, an humorous monologue.

From District competition, five students progressed to the Sectionals. To top the successful season, four CCHS students qualified for State competition, in which two of the four placed, earning an excellent achievement for the team. Paul Matthews, a junior, competed in extemporaneous speaking; Pat Nguyen, a senior, participated in oratorical declamation; Max Norman, a junior, placed fifth in State in poetry reading; and Shawn Colvin, a sophomore, placed fourth in State in prose reading The tremendous success of this year's team reflects its possibilities for next year, as it is composed predominately of sophomores and juniors.

Each year one senior member of the Speech Team is selected as the person having made outstanding competitive contributions. The outstanding senior contributor this year was Trudy Kelley.

The art department moved into the CCHS Annex this year — quite an improvement!

As a result of long hours of hard work, the Creative Arts Department of CCHS offers the most interesting and versatile program in any high school in Southern Illinois. With Mrs. Jane Renfro heading the art area, the courses offered have recently been expanded to include such things as pottery, sculpture, weaving, film making, and photography.

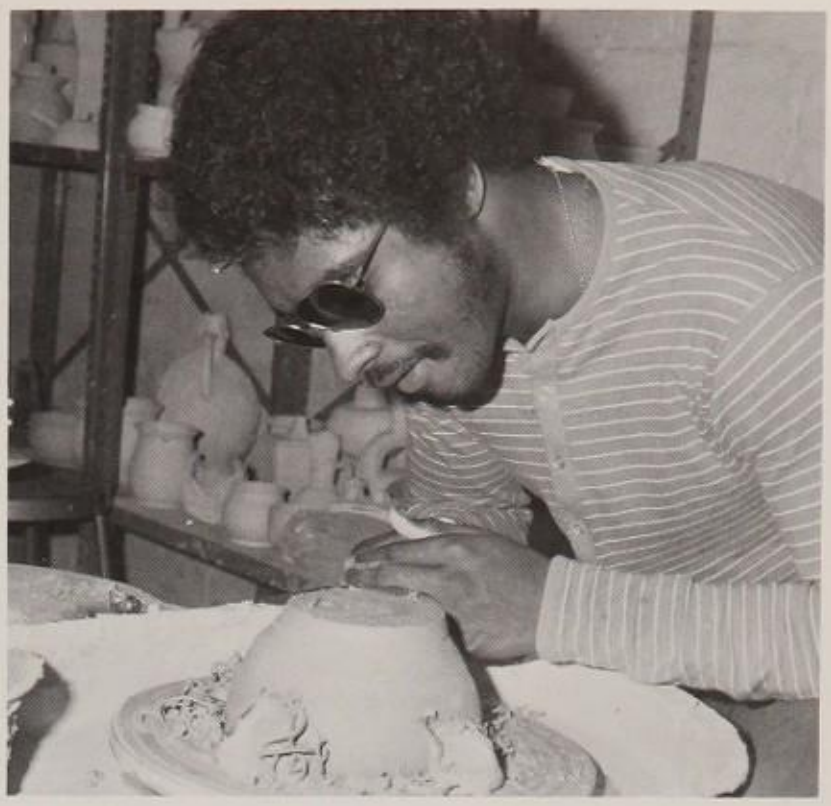
Not only has the curriculum expanded, but also the Annex has provided the space needed for the various classes. The enthusiasm shown by art students serves to illustrate just how important this department has become.

A SALUTE TO THE ARTS

Weaving is a beautiful way of expression for many students at the Annex.

Jim Hilligas concentrates on drawing the human body, a difficult accomplishment.

Honors Art student Cathy Ehrenfreund stands ready at an art show to answer questions pertaining to her displays.

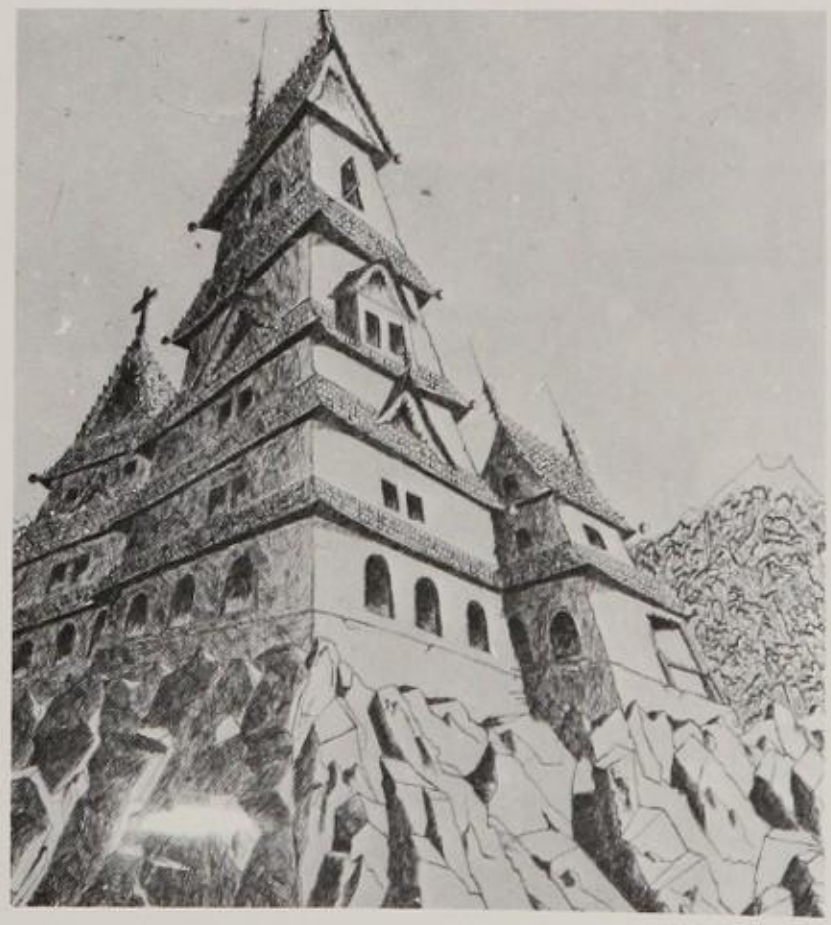


A delicate touch and a steady hand are demonstrated by Walter Norman.

HONORS ART

The Honors Art program at C.C.H.S. has resulted in many art displays in the Learning Center, giving the students a chance to show why they are Honors Art students while providing enjoyment for the rest of the student body. The extra effort made by these students in preparing the Art shows is only a small portion of the total amount of dedicated work they have done in the field of art. The work "behind the scenes" makes an ordinary student an Honors student.

This pottery produced by students at C.C.H.S. illustrates the quality of the work in the art department.



The complexity of this pen and ink drawing by Larry Marshall helps the viewer become aware of the long hours that are required to produce a work of art.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Brian Aaron, after being sidelined for a concussion, came back to be acclaimed as the best offensive end in the South.

'Terriers' became a dreaded word to Southern Illinois football teams during the 1971 season as Coach Vern Pollock and his pups physically wore down most of their opponents for a 7-3 record. Of the three losses, two came from big state powers, Cape Central of Missouri and Urbana of Central Illinois. The third came from West Frankfort in a heartbreaking game in which the Redbirds recovered a loose ball during the final seconds and ran it in for a touchdown, clinching the game and nullifing C'dale's chance for a sole South Seven Championship. However, Carbondale came back to win the final three conference games, tying for the Crown with W. Frankfort and Herrin.

Although known for their defense, C'dale's offense was at times dynamic. Quarterback Scott Ottesen led the Terriers, who featured an excellent running attack with powerful Jon Landt and Johnie Williams. The third running back was elusive Billy Livesay, a sophomore star. All-Area End Brian Aaron also generated much of the attack. The Terrier defense, considered best in the South, held their conference foes to an average of 6.5 points a game. On the line All-Area Tackle Al Scronce often penetrated the offense to sack the ball carrier for a loss of yardage. Another All-Area star, Darryl Tipton, was probably the best defensive end in the history of C.C.H.S. Other defensive standouts include Cliff Weldon — linebacker, Willie James — lineman, and All-Area Guard Joe Buser. DeWayne Kelly, Carbondale's fifth All-Area star, intercepted many passes playing as free safety.

Carbondale's defensive achievements were verified by their shutting out Harrisburg 41-0, and the always tough Centralia 21-0. But the highlight of the season came in beating their undefeated rival Murphysboro 14-0, for the eighth straight time. C'dale's tough defense held the usually explosive Red Devil offense to a total of minus 14 yards rushing.

The Terriers ended their schedule in good fashion by shutting out the pre-season pick for the Crown, Mt. Vernon 40-0. This concluded a fine season for Carbondale considered by many as the No. 1 team in Southern Illinois.

The 1971 Terrier football season got underway following the pre-game announcements of the starting lineup.

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1971 Cross Country team, coached by Kenny Lewis, in his first year compiled a 6-5-1 record. The young Harriers placed tenth in both the Trico and W. Frankfort Invitationals and seventh in the Benton Invitational. The Varsity squad was led by Eddie Long, along with other sophomore runners Bruce Anderson and Duane Johnson, junior Mike Deterding, and seniors Richard Neal and Pig Rice. They ended the season by taking fourth in Conference and a surprising fifth place in the competitive District Meet.

The J.V. posted an undefeated record in dual competition and captured third place in Conference.

WRESTLING

The 1972 Wrestling team provided C.C.H.S. with its best season in the history of the school. The grapplers, coached by Bob Odum and assistant coach Ben Cooper, posted a 13-3 dual record while winning two tournaments and taking second in another.

The excellent season was anticipated with nine varsity starters returning from last year. Leading Carbondale during the season was Terry O'Boyle who went into the sectional tournament, undefeated but finished with a 31-2 dual record. Behind him was Phil Goodman who boasted a 28-4 record. Phil was the only Southern Illinois wrestler to make it to the state finals, only to lose to the state champion. John Muhich was another outstanding wrestler with a 27-4-1 record. Wrestling at 105 lbs., Richard Neal also helped the Terriers with a 24-3-1 personal record. Other outstanding wrestlers included Dave Freitag, 10-6-1; Curt Parrish, 16-9; Richard Hudson, 17-8-1; Al Scronce, 13-10; and Cliff Weldon, 13-11.

The highlights of the season included winning the Mascoutah Tournament, the Murdale Tournament, and placing second in the District Tournament. At Mascoutah, C'dale had three first places from Muhich, Goodman, and O'Boyle, and two second places from Neal and Hudson. In C'dale's own Murdale Tournament, the Terriers took first place out of nine teams. First place victories came from Neal, Freitag, and O'Boyle, while the second place finishes included Muhich, Goodman, Weldon, Hudson, and Scronce. In the Granite City Tournament C'dale placed sixth out of sixteen teams.

In the District the Terriers took second place. Muhich, Goodman, O'Boyle, Hudson, and Neal qualified for the Sectional. At the Sectional, Neal and O'Boyle placed third and Muhich fourth. Phil Goodman went on to state.

Other highlights of the year included beating undefeated Jackson of Missouri and Mascoutah. Several varsity starters returning and a fine J.V. team will assure Coach Odum of an interesting season in '73.

The month of December was long awaited by Carbondale fans, for along with the winter came Terrier basketball. Not since 1967 when C'dale took second place in the State basketball championship have the hopes and anticipation of a State return been so high. But to many, the 1972 season was a disappointment. The Terriers concluded the season with a 16-10 record and tied for third place in the South Seven.

Although three starters returned, Coach Dave Lee had to fill the shoes of the team's most valuable players, Mike Waller and Tony Campbell. 6'3" defensive star Brian Aaron filled Waller's spot while the guard position interchanged between players from game to game. During the season Pat Monroe, Keith Reissaus, Charles Laster, Carl Favreau, and sophomore Ray Clayton all started at one point or other. The other three positions were occupied by veterans DeWayne Kelley, Willie Broadnax, and Charles Hughlett. In his third year in starting Varsity ball, DeWayne Kelley 'quarterbacked' the team from his guard position. The 5'10" 100 per-cent hustler was considered by Coach Lee as one of the best guards in the state for playing his type of ball. Next to Aaron at the other forward sport was 6'4" jumping jack Willie Broadnax who came on strong in his second year of organized ball. Illustrious 6'7" Charles Hughlett, half brother of Broadnax, played at center for the Pups. In his fourth year of Varsity ball, Hughlett proved his All-state potential. He not only dominated the boards; he finished as the No. 2 scorer in the South Seven.

The Terriers took a 4-2 record into their own Holiday Tournament. Rated seventh, C'dale had the tough job of defending its title. C'dale first defeated Carmi 56-50 before meeting Effingham. The Terriers upset the Hearts 77-62, during which Hughlett set a tourney record with the best field goal precentage. In the semi-finals C'dale defeated Chicago St. Patricks to advance to the championship game against the state champion, Thornridge. The Terriers were beaten badly 85-47, but the consolation of knowing that the Falcons were considered the best prep basketball team in Illinois history made C'dale fans realize Number two wasn't so bad.

The Terriers high point of the season followed the Holiday Tournament when they defeated Centralia, once-beaten DuQuoin, and W. Frankfort. But the Salem Tournament brought the Terriers' spirit down. The highly criticized tourney left C'dale with an 11-5 record. The Terriers then went on to win only five of the remaining nine games to finish the regular season with a 16-9 record. In the Regional, in which (for the first time in history) Illinois used the Class AA two-tourney method, C'dale was paired up against M'boro. For the first time in ten years C'dale lost to the Red Devils in basketball, thus ending the season on a bad note.

Although the Terriers were disappointed in not being the 'scourge of the South', the Pups did finish with a fine 16-10 record. The unpredictable Terriers did have surges during the season, defeating Mt. Vernon twice, both DuQuoin and W. Frankfort, and taking second in the Holiday Tournament. The fact that in six of their ten losses C'dale outscored their opponents from the floor, points out that Carbondale could have had a better record. Despite the loss of Hughlett, Broadnax, Aaron, Kelly, and reserves Charles Laster and Jeff Hayden, Coach Lee will have Reissaus, Favreau, Woolard, and Jenkins returning along with a talented J.V. team.

GOLF

Coach Jet Tarr's 1971 golf team surprised the South again with possibly their greatest season. After losing to their first two opponents, the Terriers went on to win twelve of the last fourteen dual and triangular meets.

The highlights of the season were many. C'dale tied with Benton for the South Seven Championship, with Randy Taylor tying for second place honors and Bill Meade tying for the fifth place notch. The Terriers went on to win the District, but lost the Sectionals. Perhaps the main highlight of the year was setting a school record of 144 against Murphysboro at Midland Hills. Pat Monroe and Randy Raylor each had sensational scores of 34, while Bill Meade and Bill Berst scored 38's.

BASEBALL

The 1971 Varsity Baseball Terriers finished the season with a 9-7 record, with five games cancelled due to either rain or snow. The highlight of the season was defeating unbeaten Marion 5-4. Carbondale's power at bat was led by Walt Norman, whose batting ave. was .417. Other hitting threats included Mike Waller, Greg Konishi, Scott Schwartz, and Corky Coracy. Behind the pitching of Jerry Henry and Willie Suggs, C'dale went on to win the district and come within two games of the state tournament. Losing only one infielder and outfielder and with the help of some fine junior varsity players, the Terriers can expect an outstanding ball club for 1972.

TRACK

The Terrier trackmen, coached by Vern Pollock and Dave Lee, had a great season as they captured first place in four large meets and set six new school records. C'dale's Varsity thinclads took first place at the Benton Relays and at the Tri-County meet while the JV squad won the Sophomore Benton Relays and the Sophomore Pinckneyville Meet.

The Terriers were led by Kenny Scott, who not only set a school record in the 440 yd. dash, but also tied the Southern Illinois record with a fantastic time of 49.7 seconds, qualifying him for the State tournament. Scott also led the South in the hundred yard dash with a time of 10.1. Tony Campbell set a school record in the low hurdles in 22.7 seconds, qualifying for State. Other broken school records include: David Stotlar, heaving the shot put 52.6 feet, Chris Thomas vaulting 12'6" over the pole, and Brad Lubke in the two mile with a time of 10:23.6. The Mile Relay team consisting of Kenny Scott, Tony Campbell, Mark Gibbs, and Lee Sanders, also set a school record in 3:26.8, qualifying for state. C'dale's JV team barely lost to Centralia for the title as JV Conference Champs, thus bringing high hopes for another excellent track team for next year.

CCHS for the first year in history, has added swimming as a sport. Being the only high school swim team in Southern Illinois, the Terriers could compete only in the Illinois District Meet, which composed of mostly experienced Central Illinois schools. However, Carbondale surprised the field, as Coach Bill Livingood and crew took fifth place out of thirteen teams.

Mark Lauchner won the 200 freestyle in 51.5 and the 400 freestyle in 3:57.48. The latter qualifies him as a prep All-American. Jim Isbell took second place in the 100 breast-stroke in 1:05.8 to qualify for state. C'dale also took third place in the Medley relay (consisting of Walter Bottje, Jim Isbell, Mark Lauchner, and Harry Edelman.) Other medal winners included Brad Goss, taking third in the 100 butterfly; Bottje, fourth in the 100 backstroke; and Harry Edelman, sixth in the 100 butterfly.

At State, Lauchner scored twelve points for CCHS, finishing sixth and tenth in the 200 and 400 freestyle. Lauchner was the only freshman to make the Illinois State High School Swimming Meet finals.

With the use of the YMCA pool for home meets and the hope of other local schools picking up the sport, Terrier swimming has a bright future in becoming a popular sport. 1972 was a good start.

PROM QUEEN LINDA ENGLISH

To the romantic theme "We've Only Just Begun," excited couples entered the University Center Ballroom, scene of Prom 1971.

Murals signifying new beginnings and the coming of spring decorated the ballroom; flowers, symbolizing the beauty of spring, decorated the tables. Midst all this, Linda English, surprised and exceedingly happy, was crowned queen.

At twelve o'clock, the couples boarded buses which took them to the Du Quoin Fair Grounds, where they enjoyed such activities as miniature golf and dancing.

Despite rainy weather, spirits were not dampened as the early hours of the new day ended Prom festivities.

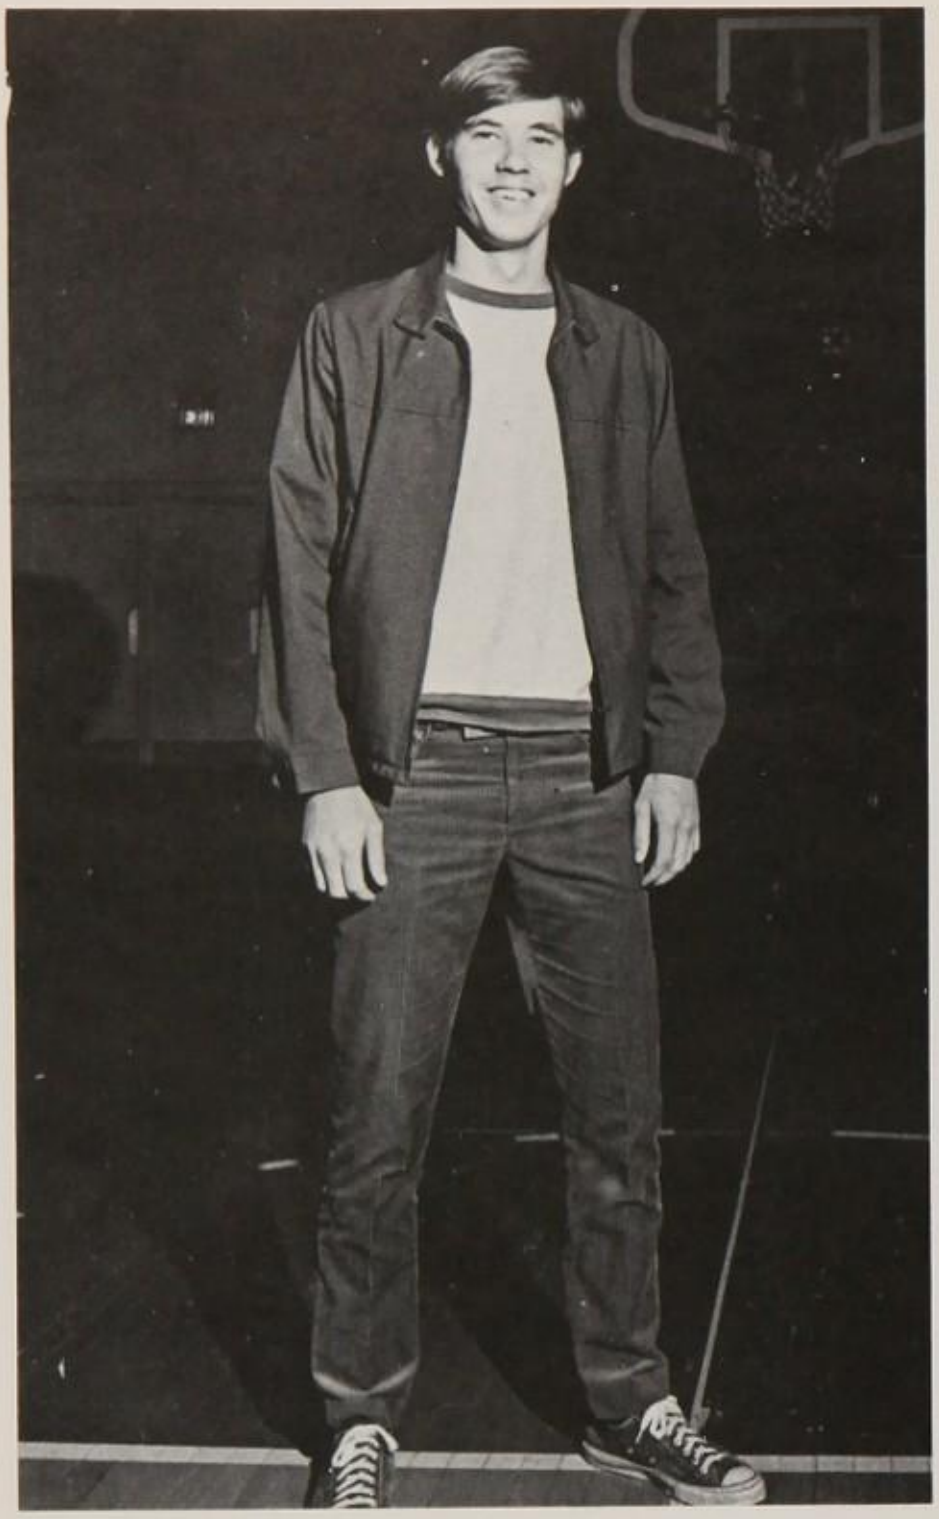
CLASSES



TEN OUTSTANDING SENIORS

Active participation in school activities during four years at CCHS and placing in the upper one-fourth of the Senior class scholastically enabled these ten seniors to deserve this honor. Their many hours spent in the areas of academics, student government, journalism, drama, athletics, and other extra curricular activities can never be fully recognized. These honored students represent best the Senior Class.

The Dial is proud to honor these Ten Outstanding Seniors.

BRIAN AARON

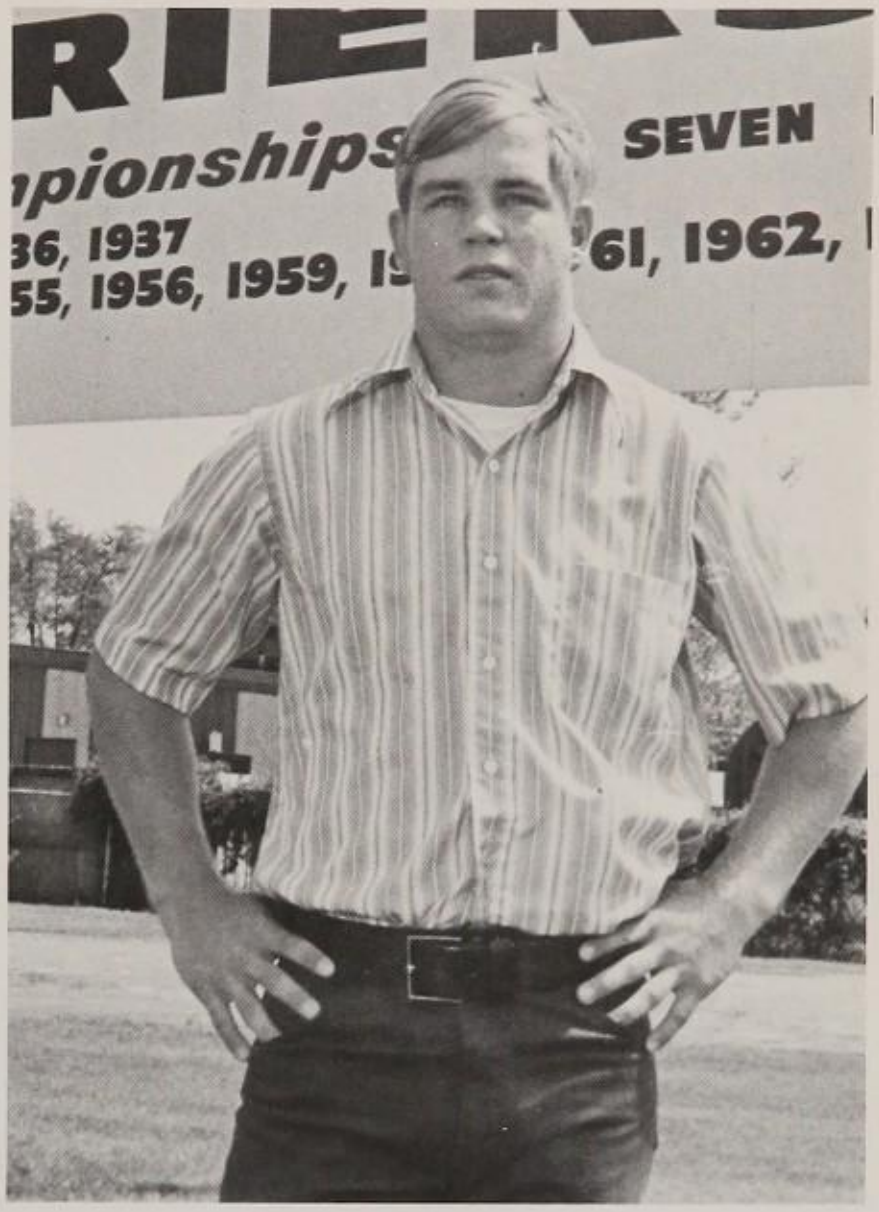
Brian was a four year member of the football and basketball team and participated in track and baseball. He was a tri-captain of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes his senior year.

ALISA ANDERSON

A very versatile student, Alisa belonged to Student Council, Spanish Club, FHA, Orchestra, and Gymnastics. She was a member of the National Honor Society her junior and senior years.

SUSAN GEYER

During Susan's years at CCHS, she was active in Candystriping, Medical Careers, and French Club. She was a class officer her sophomore year and Sno-Ball candidate her senior year.

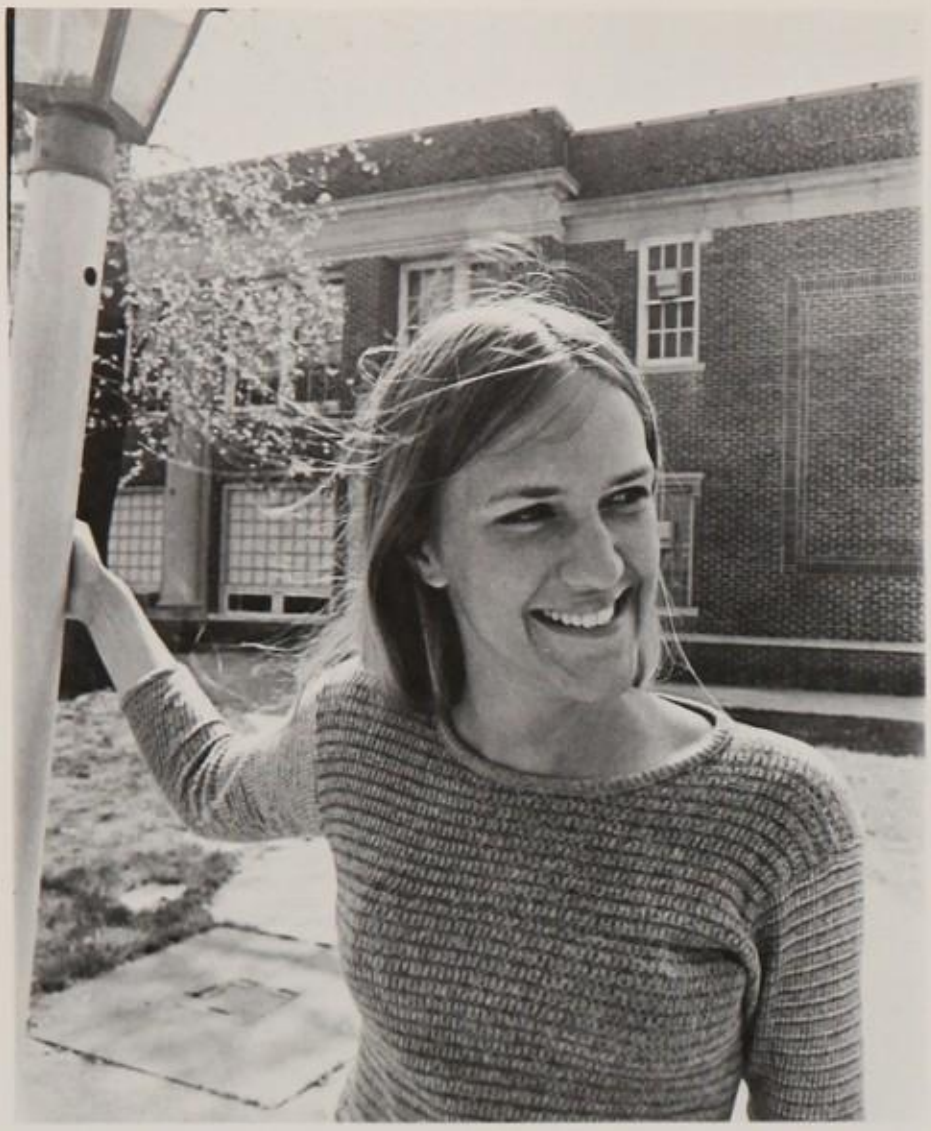


JOE BUSER

Joe combined study and sports, doing well in both. He was elected to the National Honor Society his junior year and played football and baseball throughout his high school years.

BARBARA GOSS

Work on the Dial and the Monitor contributed to Barb's status as an Outstanding Senior. She also participated in Medical Careers, the Conservation Club, Candystriping, and the All School Musical.



BEV HENDERSON

Bev's cheerleading skill and enthusiasm were perhaps her most notable achievement at CCHS. She was a member of the Dial and Monitor staffs and a Prom and Homecoming candidate.

LINDA LEFEVRE

To undertake the job of junior class president is quite a feat, but is typical of Linda's get-up-and-go style. She was a cheerleader for four years, served on the Student Council, and belonged to the National Honor Society.

PAT NGUYEN

Pat deserved special notice as an Outstanding Senior because she participated well in many clubs and activities: Student Council, All School Musical, All School Play, Conservation Club, French Club, Thespians, and Science Club.

BESS MAXWELL

As president of Student Council, Bess worked hard for the entire student body at CCHS. She was a faithful Dial member, swam for the newly-formed CCHS swim team, and was a two-year member of the National Honor Society.

LYNN PHILIPP

A dedicated student, Lynn was a candystriper three of her high school years, a two-year member of the National Honor Society, and an official member of Student Council.

The final year
The top of the pile . . .
The leap into a bigger puddle . . .
Seeing the light from various angles, we're Seniors

Making the last effort
Learning ways, means, causes and effects

Hassle . . . Hustle . . .
Responsibility . . . Decisions . . .
That's the Seniors' bag

For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
a time to read, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.
